Submit Paper

This is to acknowledge that we have received your submitted paper.

We are now in the process of verifying your submission if it is complete, readable, and appropriate for the DLSU Business and Economics Review. Your document will first be submitted to a plagiarism detector tool so please make sure that all your sources are identified and indicated in your list of references. We will inform you via email if your submission is appropriate for this journal and merits having experts to review it.

Please make sure to identify all your sources and correctly indicate all literature references in your text. Your document will be submitted to a plagiarism detection service.

May we also suggest that you look carefully at related articles that we have published in recent years, and emulate their approaches to provide continuous intellectual discussion on potentially generalizable results in your paper. You may want the volume publication for a list of DLSU Business and Economics Review publications related to your topic.

Thank you very much for your interest in contributing to our journal.
